

Now when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls, one ephah of flour, and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the Lord in Shiloh. And the child was young.

Then they slaughtered a bull, and brought the child to Eli. And she said, "O my lord! As your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the Lord. For this child I prayed, and the Lord has granted me my petition which I asked of Him. Therefore I also have lent him to the Lord; as long as he lives he shall be lent to the Lord." So they worshiped the Lord there.

I Samuel 1:24-28

Then little children were brought to Him that He might put His hands on them and pray, but the disciples rebuked them. But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them; for of such is the kingdom of heaven. And He laid His hands on them and departed from there.

At Grace Fellowship we read in the Bible about the Lord's divine concern for the spiritual well-being of little children and their commitment to God.

We encourage Christian parents to formally dedicate their children to Christ in one of the public worship services of the church.

Doing so demonstrates not only the desire of the parents that their children should grow to serve the Lord, but also the parent's public dedication of themselves to raise their children for the glory of God.
